Family's shock as car smashes into lounge

BY CARL MUNGAZI

carl.mungazi@lutononsunday.co.uk

A HOUSEHOLDER has told of his shock at discovering a car which ploughed into the front room of his home narrowly missed one of his daughters.

Mohammed Abdul Bashir, 62, of Biscot Road, was at the hospital with two of his daughters on Wednesday when a car knocked down part of his neighbour's wall, crashed into a Vauxhall Corsa parked outside his property and ploughed into his lounge.

His daughter Ragia, who only bought the Corsa three weeks ago, had been sitting in the lounge minutes before the incident, which happened at around 6.30pm.

The vehicle, which Mr Bashir said was silver, drove off before being abandoned in nearby Lansdowne Road. The driver is said to have fled the scene.

The 62-year-old added: "We are shocked because his car has damaged my daughter's car and my house. If there were people in the lounge when it happened he would have killed them. When I came home I found over a hundred people standing outside. We had only gone out for half an hour and this happened."

Ragia said: "I had gone to the bathroom when it happened. The house shook and it was really loud. "I could hear glass breaking so I quickly ran downstairs and I saw the brick wall sticking out. When I ran outside I saw my car but the driver had driven off."

"The licence plate from the other car came off and was left behind but I was really shaken and shocked by it all."

Olaf Sotola, Mr Bashir's neighbour, said he had been watching a film with his wife when he heard a loud bang which sounded 'like a bomb had gone off'.

He added: "We just came out and did not know what had happened. The guy drove away but it could have been in my house. There's also a school and a pedestrian crossing nearby."

Bedfordshire Police have launched an investigation and are appealing for witnesses to call 101.

Councillors approve tax increase countywide

BOTH Luton Borough Council and Central Bedfordshire Council voted to increase council tax by 3.95 per cent this week.

At the Luton Borough Council meeting on Monday, the Liberal Democrat group rejected the proposed budget while the Conservatives supported it, with Councillor John Garrett, leader of the group saying: "We don't support everything you say but we don't have enough members to challenge and we don't want to waste the council's time."

In a heated debate, council leader, Labour Cllr Hazel Simmons, said they were only using that as an excuse as they were too lazy to provide an alternative budget.

In Central Bedfordshire, objection came from former Liberal Democrat councillor Rita Egan, who said: "This year's budget consultation is yet another example of how Central Bedfordshire fulfils its statutory duty then ignores what residents say."

Residents had objected to the tax hike in consultation but council officers still proposed the increase in the budget.

Editor's Letter

A final farewell to an inspirational Lutonian

I FIND one of the hardest things about a funeral is the moment when you look around and think that lost friend or relative would loved to have been there; to remember days gone by in good company.

This week hundreds of people bid a final farewell to Tony Jules, a man who managed to remain truly inspirational even in his very last days.

I never actually got to meet him. But from the moment I heard about his fundraising efforts in the face of adversity, I – like hundreds of others – felt connected to him.

Reading about his funeral (p24-25) it is clear Tony's achievements stretch far beyond his Keech Angel fund and his legacy will live long beyond the effect of his donation to the hospice.

Our thoughts now go to his family, who will no doubt find a way to carry on just as Tony did.

Here was a man Luton can truly be proud to call one of their own.

It's three on the spin for the high-frying Mr Chips

BY NICK SMITH

nick.smith@lutononsunday.co.uk

A FISH and chip shop has been crowned best in town for the third year in a row.

This National Chip Week, February 16 - 22, we asked you to vote for what you consider to be the best chippies in Bedfordshire and Luton; your favourite, the finest fish 'n' chip shop.

Hundreds of you voted, with the top award for 2016 going to Mr Chips IV in Seymour Avenue in Luton – which garnered more than a third of the votes cast.

On winning the accolade, Sedat Gurbuz, son of owner Metin Tekin, said: "We're really happy to have won for the third time in a row, and it just shows that we must be doing something right."

"Thank you to all of our loyal customers for voting for us and helping us take home the award."

Despite only opening in town around four years ago, Mr Chips has proved a hit with our readers, having taken home the prestigious award three times already.

This year the father and son duo have successfully defended their crown once again.

In second place came The Wigmore, Wigmore Lane, which jumped up three places from last year when it rounded out our top five.

Third was the Black Swan Chip Shop, in Black Swan Lane, dropping one place after being voted runner-up in the competition last year. Breaking into the top five was Westway Fish and Chips in Stopsley, which came in fourth place. Rounding off our top five was last year's bronze medallist, Mr Fish in Lyneham Road.

Dropping out of the top five in this year's competition was Peri Peri Express in Leagrave Road.

Whether you take yours with ketchup or mayonnaise, salt and vinegar or pickled onions, fish and chips remain right near the top of our favourite take-away choices.

Benefit system begins

UNIVERSAL credit was introduced in Luton on Monday and a number of new claims have been made already.

The government says the new benefit system is designed to 'help people who are able to work get the best out of their benefits and still be able to work towards starting a career'.

Mairead McGeoghan, customer service operations manager for Department for Work and Pensions Luton said: "The new system introduces a single monthly payment of benefits, similar to being in the world of work."

"Benefits go down as earnings increase, it's based solely on how much you earn and not how many hours you work."

It will replace a number of benefit schemes with one single payment, and the government hopes it will increase employment by 300,000 and make 3m homes better off.

The new benefit will be open to anyone making new claims.

Existing claims are not affected by the introduction of the new scheme.

Minister for Welfare Reform, Lord Freud, said: "Under Universal Credit we are creating a higher wage, lower tax, and lower welfare society, with people moving into jobs faster, and able to increase their earnings."

Helping hand for homeless Gavin

GOOD SAMARITANS: Marc Watson and Sparky Oneall want to raise a deposit for former service-man Gavin

BY CARL MUNGAZI
carl.mungazi@lutononsunday.co.uk

TWO men have joined forces to organise a fundraising event for a homeless ex-serviceman who cannot get housing because he will not give up his pet dogs.

Gavin Lockyer (pictured right), 39, who served in the Royal Navy for five years, has not had a home for the last two years and has been told by Luton Borough Council he cannot be rehomed along with his two dogs.

The council said it did not have 'any obligations to any pets or animals within a household'.

The event, on March 12, is being organised by Sparky Oneall, who runs a maintenance business, and his employee Marc Watson at pool club Ray's Cues in Guildford Street.

Gavin said he used to rent a place in Bury Park with his wife but had to move out because the landlord wanted the property back.

After that the pair moved into another property but they were not allowed to keep the dogs so Gavin left and is now looking for another place.

He said: "She is still there but she is not very well. I survive as best I can."

"My benefits were stopped for a long time and I got some reinstated but I survive on what people are good enough to give me and I make sure that my dogs eat."

"Marc and Sparky have been brilliant and have been sorting things out for me and are really nice blokes."

"I just met them in the street and they're doing their best to raise a deposit."

Sparky said he had been in contact with companies willing to donate money for the fundraising event.

He added: "The council are saying that he will only get a house if he gets rid of the dogs but it's hard finding a private landlord who will take people with benefits."

"All the landlords want someone who is working but how can you get a home if you do not have a job?"

A council spokesman said: "In general, the authority does not have a statutory duty to secure accommodation for an individual if they have caused their own homelessness or if they are assessed as not being a 'priority need'."

"We also do not have any obligations to any pets or animals within a household and it is becoming increasingly difficult to find landlords willing to accept pets."

FINALLY a way to get rid of DISCcomfort

Advertising feature

Are you suffering from back pain, arm or leg pain, numbness, tingling, or weakness in your arms or legs? Then it's likely you're suffering from DISCcomfort. That's when one of your spinal discs is bulging or herniated and causing these, sometimes severe, symptoms because of the effect the disc is having on your nerve system.

You may have already had this diagnosed on an MRI and thought that there is little that can be done about it and that's a major problem: bad information, because in the right hands a lot can be done for you.

To end the misery caused by bad spinal discs you must have the right information. Pay close attention because I'm going to destroy some important myths and give you the facts.

MYTH: DISC problems will just "go away" with some rest.

FACT: If you are dealing with back pain, buttock pain or leg pain, then you must seek help from a DISC specialist immediately. Left untreated, DISC problems can lead to permanent nerve damage - and lifelong pain.

MYTH: Pain is the only problem associated with DISC problems.

FACT: In severe cases, DISC problems can lead to the inability to control your bowels, bladder and sexual potency - leading to embarrassing situations.

MYTH: You must take pain medications to deal with bad DISCs.

FACT: Drugs like muscle relaxants, pain killers, narcotics, antidepressants, and anti-seizure medications have serious potential side-effects and do not cure damaged spinal DISCs.

MYTH: "I must have done something wrong to damage my DISC."

FACT: Physical work or simply sitting at a desk for long periods can lead to weakened DISCs. Accidents and trauma can also be the culprits. Pregnancy can cause damage. DISC damage can happen to anyone - including super-fit celebrities like Tiger Woods, Sylvester Stallone, and British Olympic medalist Ian Wynne.

MYTH: Stop exercising and get several weeks of bed rest to let the DISC recover...

FACT: Staying active can help to relieve DISC pain and prevent the pain getting worse. Staying inactive in bed could be the worst advice - based on a recent study in the Netherlands.

MYTH: DISC bulges or herniations require surgery.

FACT: NO! There's been a huge breakthrough in the treatment of DISC problems. It's a new procedure called Non-Surgical Re-Constructive Spinal Care. The excellent results from this treatment have been published in major medical journals. Success rates are up to 90%.

MYTH: "There's nothing anyone can really do. I'm just stuck with this for the rest of my life."

FACT: With the correct treatment from a healthcare professional who specialises in DISC problems, you can find relief from the core cause - and the symptoms.

MYTH: Getting DISC problems properly diagnosed is expensive.

FACT: Not true. The Atlas Wellness Centre in Bedfordshire is currently offering an initial consultation with one of their specialists for Just £43.

Peter Olsson
Spinal DISC Expert in Bedford.

Peter Olsson is one of the UK's leading spinal care experts. Peter (the clinical leader at Atlas Wellness Centre) and his team of fully-trained spinal care specialists have helped over 4,026 patients find relief from agonising DISC problems. He's one of the first professionals in the UK to use Non-Surgical Re-Constructive Spinal Care.

This procedure does not require a hospital stay and in most cases you'll be able to continue with your normal daily activities with little interruption. The focus is on finding - and correcting - the original cause of the damaged DISC.

According to Olsson, "We use a combination of ultra-advanced technology, not found elsewhere in the region, for precisely diagnosing the cause of your damaged DISC. This means superior long-term results for most people."

Almost Immediate Relief From Pain...

Because the treatment is non-surgical, safe, and easy, most patients report an almost immediately relief from their back pain.

Patient Jeff P. from Cambridge wrote, "My back pain was unbearable but the worst thing was the searing burning pain I felt in my buttock and leg... my wife insisted I see Peter Olsson. I'm 95% better in just a couple of weeks."

Take the Next Step - END the Suffering... Initial Consultation Just £43

The first step is to secure a thorough examination with one of the specialists at Atlas Wellness Centre.

School up for £12k windfall

A PRIMARY school is up for a prestigious award which could see up to a £12,000 boost.

Surrey Street Primary school would use the money to build an outdoor classroom to tie in with the school garden.

This is part of a Tesco competition with shoppers voting by dropping a token given after paying into the project they feel is most worthy.

Trespasser leads to call for action

BY NICK SMITH

nick.smith@lutononsunday.co.uk

REPORTS of a stranger walking into gardens and homes has raised concern.

There have been many accounts on Facebook of the man walking into properties in Houghton Regis, with people being told to keep doors locked.

One of the victims is Ryan Green, of Westminster Gardens.

He said: "I'd only been home from work for 20 minutes when I saw someone walking down the back path in the garden, thinking nothing of it because my father does that regularly, but it was someone else and they just wandered into my house."

"He was a big bloke, about six foot tall and he refused to go, he just stared straight through me."

"It took him a few minutes before he left."

"My two young kids were in the next room so I'm just glad it didn't happen 20 minutes earlier, before I got home."

"I called the police and heard nothing more said about it from them, which I don't think is acceptable."

"I've had to sit with my kids every night since the incident as they're petrified about what happened."

"More should be done about this."

A spokeswoman for Bedfordshire Police said: "Police were called at approximately 6.25pm last Sunday to reports that a man was seen acting suspiciously outside a property in Westminster Gardens, Houghton Regis."

"The man was asked to move on by the property owner and he left the scene."

"A patrol car was dispatched as a precaution, however no offences were found to have been committed."

Health centre contracts could be extended

CONTRACTS at four health centres due to expire next month could be extended for another year.

The contracts for NHS services at the Moakes, Whipperley, Chapel Street and Sundon Park Health Centres are supposed to end on March 31, but they could now run until March 2017, to allow for an extended consultation with affected residents.

If agreed by health bosses, the new proposals would mean a 60-day consultation for the Sundon Park, Moakes and Whipperley centres and a 90-day consultation period for the Chapel Street site.

Police called out after gun attack

BY CARL MUNGAZI
carl.mungazi@lutononsunday.co.uk

ARMED police officers had to rush to a travellers' site in Dunstable last Friday following reports of a gun being fired.

Bedfordshire Police said no-one was injured in the incident, which happened at 8.55pm at the site in Watling Street.

Police officers searched the area after finding a damaged vehicle, caravan and chalet.

A member of the public at the scene, who did not want to be named, said: "From my vantage point it would appear that one large mobile home had all of the windows to the front and left of the building smashed.

"I was not able to confirm if the entire house had been attacked all the way around. At least one caravan to the left and rear of the house was attacked.

"One white Ford Transit van parked in the driveway had a great many gashes into its bodywork, some in the shape of an axe.

"Clearly this has been the scene of great violence and on an unprecedented scale."

A police spokeswoman said officers have been patrolling the area regularly since the incident and an investigation has been launched.

Anyone with information is asked to contact police on 101.

Cloudy2Clear Windows – Service With A Smile!

It's been a crazy few months for Cloudy2Clear Windows. The company which specialises in repairing windows which are steamed up, broken or damaged by replacing the panes – not the frames has grown rapidly as homeowners take advantage of their services.

Managing Director Tom Bliss feels that it's all about service. 'Our product is simple. If your double glazing is misted up we can replace the glass at a fraction of the cost of a new window, in any type of frame, and with a new 10 year guarantee. But it's not just about saving people money, although that obviously helps. Many tradespeople have struggled since last year and I honestly feel that during the good times a minority perhaps didn't focus on customer care as much as they should have done. We make sure we turn up when we say we will, do the job the customer requires and leave their house as clean as a whistle. I often get comments back from customers on how they really didn't expect that sort of service which, in a way, is very sad for the service industry as a whole.'

Cloudy2Clear service the Luton, Dunstable and Stevenage areas and Tom is finding that his approach is a major factor in his success.

'The truth is that it's not just the personal satisfaction that I get from doing a good job but also it makes good business sense. I get a huge amount of business from friends and family of people I've done work for, which just goes to show how much a little bit of effort is appreciated.'

So, if your windows are steamed up, broken or damaged give Tom a call for a free quotation on 0800 61 21 118 and he'll be happy to help!

Mental health patients to take part in Duke's award

AN AWARD-WINNING mental health trust has become the first NHS trust in the country to run The Duke of Edinburgh's Award (DofE).

East London Foundation NHS Trust (ELFT) will use the DofE to support clients using its Bedfordshire and Luton Mental Health and Wellbeing Services to help with inpatients' rehabilitation.

Health development coordinator Steve Muggridge said: "I am really excited about this project.

"We believe that by providing both mental health and physical health support that our service users can really progress."

Policeman 'lost count' of teens he slept with

BY CARL MUNGAZI

carl.mungazi@lutononsunday.co.uk

AN EX-POLICEMAN accused of grooming underage girls online has said he could not recall how many teenagers he had sex with.

Mohammad Arshad, 35, of Ferndale Road, Luton, told a jury at St Albans Crown Court: "I don't remember. It is hard for me to say."

When prosecutor James Newton-Price asked if it was less or more than a 100, he replied: "It is hard for me to put a number on it."

Arshad is accused of grooming girls online after looking at more than 5,000 profiles on Facebook.

His trial relates to 13 alleged victims aged between 13 and 16 between October 2012 and December 2014. He denies 22 child sex offences charges.

He is said to have driven around with girls in his car and persuaded some to have sexual activity with him.

When asked if he felt shame,

Arshad replied: "Religiously, yes, but I have not committed a crime."

He denied keeping two phones – one for his family and the other to contact girls.

Arshad also told the court he had been making contact with girls on social media since he was a teenager.

He said he believed that all the girls he had contact with were over 16. He paid one girl £50 for sex, but said she told him she was 18.

The trial continues.

READALLOVER

THIS week we have Lyn Brown MP who came to Luton on Thursday in her role as Shadow Minister for Fire and Communities to visit Ollly Martins on the day Police and Crime Commissioners officially launched their election campaigns.

Ms Brown was eagerly reading the letter sent in by George via email last week, regarding the future of the fire service.

BLOGGER OF THE WEEK: Mandy Watts

This week we hear from Mandy Watts, a woman who is the victim of Bedfordshire's first transgender hate crime. She was verbally assaulted in Bedford in July last year and has spoken out about her experience in a blog for Bedfordshire Police or LGBT History Month. (bedspolice.wordpress.com)

Because I am transsexual I have experienced hate before.

Previous incidents deeply hurt me at the time. And I felt that I wasn't taken seriously when I reported it. It meant that I wasn't confident in reporting other incidents.

But one day last year was different – this was a direct in my face incident.

I was supporting someone with a learning disability to go to the dentist and as we were about to leave the surgery car park we got blocked in by another car.

I beeped the horn to let them know we were trying to leave. What happened next was truly shocking! A young woman came to my window screaming at me for having the audacity to beep her. As she got closer she became confused about my gender.

"What are you? I don't know what you are!" were some of her transphobic comments.

She returned to her car, only to reappear with her phone, still screaming abuse at me.

She filmed me while calling me a "man woman thing" and saying she was going to put it all over Facebook.

The abuse didn't stop. "How does that make you feel?" She screamed at me.

Well how do you think? I was shaken and fearful, my confidence had been knocked. This was a targeted and aggressive attack.

It also came a year after my reassignment operation so I was slightly surprised as I'm a lot more natural in looks now. I blend in to the background much better.

I got back to my workplace and took some time out to reflect on what had happened. I took courage from my boss who advised me to report the incident, she believed I shouldn't let my abuser get away with it.

I went and found a quiet spot and made the call to the police. The next day I went to Greyfriars with my partner to make a statement. I was treated very sensitively and left feeling valued as a person. As a transsexual woman. And as a victim of a hate crime.

A few days later I got a call from the police who informed me the woman had been arrested, interviewed, cautioned and charged with section 44 public order offence and bailed to appear in court in a month's time.

Suddenly I felt lifted a little, knowing that whatever happened now, the woman responsible for that ghastly incident would face some justice – even if she somehow managed to avoid a conviction. She didn't. She was convicted, fined and collected a criminal record.

When I reported transphobic abuse to police in 2010 it seemed to me as though knowledge, understanding and even a desire to act by individual officers was lagging behind the actual law. But this time was different.

Obviously there are questions that need to be asked, but there are sensitive and insensitive ways to ask questions, and my role there was to give them the words and phrases that were soft and sensitive enough to elicit a positive outcome in gaining the right information.

I had no fear of talking to the police and even thought it would be interesting to see how much change there had been in recent years.

I want to send a message to all transgender and transsexual people – the police are on the side of victims, and treat trans people sensitively and value their need for justice just as much as everyone else.

Your Luton Letters

It's not a fair cop

ISN'T it about time Mr Turvey found someone else to criticise as nearly every week there is a letter printed in your paper from him writing negative comments about both the Police and the PCC.

I work for Bedfordshire Police and am very proud to do so. They are truly committed to protecting the people of Bedfordshire, not helped by insufficient funds and constant criticism from people like Mr Turvey. Perhaps Mr Turvey should see if he could run the police service any better – I very much doubt it.

I speak from first hand experience and can say without hesitation that Bedfordshire Police are doing an excellent job with the lack of resources and funding they receive.

Destined for oblivion

AS I follow the daily updates on David Cameron's negotiations with his EU friends, I feel as if I am watching the rehearsal for a play.

The script, which contained little enough to start with, is being constantly edited to satisfy different actors' ideas; and that, as opening night approaches, the playwright-director has lost the plot.

I shall not be surprised if the critics give it a rotten press. Nor if the audience demand their money back.

The playwright seems destined for oblivion.

Council tax robbery

THERE was a time when the government of the day messed around with mortgage interest rates.

They would keep putting them up until people had their houses repossessed.

Then they had some fun with VAT. 20p in the pound is extortionate. Now it's the turn of the council tax.

After your mortgage, this is the next big bill. Just because you live in a house, they know you've got to pay. The way they work it is, the more you pay, the less you get. It's fair in life that you pay your way.

But we are being robbed left right and centre, by the people we elected.

Where does it all go?

REGARDING the piece by Carl Mungazi about car parks making £857,000 a year: where does it all go?

Luton town should be one of the richest towns in the country; we've got a very good football side, an airport which must make a fortune, but you never hear how much.

Then you've got these money-making car parks raking in nearly £900k a year.

Again: where does it all go?!

I can't see why Luton Borough Council has to put up our council tax. Is it bad management or people in the council using taxis rather than public transport? Surely one or two of them have bus passes?

But it seems that they are the untouchables.

It even seems when people (the public) go to Luton Borough Council meetings, speakers are turned down. No way to behave, is it?

When these people are dealing with our money they should be accountable to us.

Fashioning a win

She's a Hellavagirl

A DUNSTABLE-based fashion designer has been crowned Britain's Top Designer after winning a national contest aimed at unearthing the best emerging talent.

Helen Woollams, owner of luxury label Hellavagirl, beat six other finalists to the top prize during London Fashion Week (LFW) where she also showcased her designs for the third year in a row.

The designer said she was 'excited' about her label's future.

Wouldn't it be easier having your prescription medicines delivered direct to your door?

With nothing to lose except those trips to the surgery and to the chemist, it makes sense to register for our NHS repeat prescription service now.

Call us on 01582 591616 or register online at www.birdsfootpharmacy.co.uk

As simple as 1-2-3

Once you have registered with us, you can order your prescription by post, online or by phone.

We phone or e-mail to remind you when your prescription is due and confirm what you would like ordered. If you prefer, simply phone us at any time.

We order the prescription from your surgery and they send it to us electronically.

Our pharmacists dispense your prescription, which is then delivered free to your door by our delivery driver.

No wonder 98% of our customers prefer our services. It goes without saying that we're proud of the service we offer. But most importantly, 98% of our customers say that they find the service far more convenient than getting repeat prescriptions the normal way.

Register today and get your next prescription without leaving home. It's quick and easy to register for repeat prescription deliveries from Birdsfoot Lane Pharmacy.

Call us on 01582 591616 or visit us at www.birdsfootpharmacy.co.uk

As it won't cost you or indeed the NHS a penny more or could save you so much time and effort it makes sense to register today.

SO EASY TO JOIN TODAY - WITH NO COMMITMENT

Whether you choose to join by mail, phone or online, there's absolutely no commitment - you are free to stop using us as any time.

Frequently asked questions

•Who are Birdsfoot Lane Pharmacy?

We are an approved provider of NHS prescription dispensing services. We specialize in the home delivery of medicines and currently serve hundreds of people in Luton.

•Who delivers my medicine?

Your medicines will normally be delivered by our very own drivers.

•Is delivery always free?

Yes it is, what's more, we can deliver to any address - your home, your place of work or to your carer.

•What if I'm out when my delivery arrives?

You can tell us to leave your parcel with a neighbour if you prefer. If not, our delivery driver will leave a card to arrange a redelivery for free.

•Can I switch to Birdsfoot Lane Pharmacy if I already nominated another pharmacy?

Yes. The NHS Electronic Prescription Service is a new way to let patients choose the pharmacy service that best suits their need.

NHS repeat prescriptions have never been easier

We can remind you every time a prescription is due

We receive your prescription electronically from your doctor or collect it from your surgery

We dispense and deliver it free to your door. There's no commitment, you can stop at any time. If you need repeat NHS prescriptions, we've got some very good news for you. All your repeat prescriptions can now be delivered to your home - at no extra cost - so you don't have to brave bad weather, wait for buses, find a spot to park or even rely on someone else for help.

Delivered free to your door

The new NHS Electronic Prescription Service enables doctors to send prescriptions direct to pharmacies like as Birdsfoot Lane. We then take care of all arrangements necessary to get your repeat prescriptions delivered free to your door.

Wife of man left with swab to sue

carl.mungasi@lutononsunday.co.uk

THE widow of a man who died after hospital staff left a swab in his body for 13 years is taking legal action.

Former long-distance lorry driver Francis Hibbard died in 2014, but scans before his death revealed Luton & Dunstable Hospital staff had failed to spot a swab left from a prostate operation in 2001.

His wife Christine, 70, said she has felt 'lost and alone' since her husband of almost 50 years died in her arms after going into a coma for seven days during an operation to remove the swab.

Following his operation in 2001, the hospital missed the swab on a CT scan in 2003 and only identified in 2014 when Mr Hibbard suffered a severe deterioration. It emerged that a mass attached to it had calcified and grown around veins and had become the size of a melon, pressing on his rectum and bowel.

Christine said: "I feel angry. Angry firstly that a swab was left behind following his operation in 2001, and then that it was also missed on a scan."

"All those years he lived with a swab inside him. I just feel the health system badly let him down. In my view the poor treatment left him in agony and had a massive impact on his health. I am so angry and always will be."

Renu Daly, a medical negligence specialist representing Christine, said the case left 'many serious questions to be asked'.

She added: "There is quite simply no excuse

MEDICAL NEGLIGENCE;
Christine Hibbard with her late husband, Francis or explanation that can be given to defend the error of leaving a swab behind inside a patient following an operation. It is a simple case of counting the swabs in and back out again to ensure a mistake is not made."

An inquest into the lorry driver's death is now due to be heard next month.

An L&D spokesman: "We carried out a thorough internal review and provided an explanation and apology to Mr Hibbard's family."

"We would like to apologise again for the error, and for the fact that a key opportunity to identify and remove the swab was missed during a CT scan in 2003."

"This is clearly something that should never have happened."

Schools wasting no time in bid for £2k

BY LOS REPORTER
editor@lsnmedia.co.uk

A NEW competition is giving the top recycling households in Luton the opportunity to help local schools win £2,000 for their own environmental project.

During March and April households that recycle correctly will get a reward tag on their household recycling bins which contain paper and card, plastic bottles, cans and tins, and textiles and clothes.

Only bins which include the recycling items listed above will receive a reward tag.

Most local infant, junior and primary schools are taking part and householders who receive a tag will be able to nominate a school of their choice to win one of three prizes of £2,000 that they can then use to create or develop their own environmental project.

Warden Hill Junior School is looking forward to taking part, headteacher Mark Welch said: "We are really pleased to be involved with this new scheme to promote recycling in our town."

"The children are looking

GOING GREEN:
Year five pupils
from Warden
Hill Primary

forward to being involved and will be encouraging all their family and friends to recycle."

Cllr Tom Shaw, Portfolio Holder for the environment said: "Recycling is a top priority in Luton and we want to recognise those who do it correctly and encourage everyone to join in."

"This competition will raise the awareness of the importance of recycling and highlight to children how recycling today will benefit them and their environment. So please hand in your tags."

The winners in each category will be the schools with the most tags (as a percentage of total number of pupils).

For example in a school of 500 if 150 tags are returned that is 30 per cent but in a school of 150 if 80 tags are returned that is 53.3 per cent.

For more information, terms and conditions and a full list of participating schools visit luton.gov.uk/recycling. Recycling bins must not have any waste in them, including food, oil or nappies or glass.

OPEN FOR BUSINESS: Chief Executive Julia Cornelius showing Princess Anne around the new facility

A right royal welcome for new advice centre

A NEW one-stop shop advice centre for residents was opened on Monday by HRH Princess Anne, patron for the Citizen's Advice Bureau.

Citizen's Advice Luton is one of the busiest advice providers in the East of England, solving 32,000 problems last year.

With the new centre, it says it is 'transforming the way services are delivered'.

The princess was given a tour of the new facility in Community House, New Bedford Road, and then officially opened the building during a ceremony.

Julia Cornelius, chief executive of Citizen's Advice Luton said: "The move to Community

House gives us the facilities to expand and further develop services with our partners at Luton Borough Council and in the voluntary sector in Luton.

"We are creating one, easy to reach, fast, efficient, seamless service that connects all of the different elements people need to help them resolve their problems.

"This is the future for advice in the UK."

The new facility has been launched as a collaborative effort with Luton Access, Luton Irish Forum, Luton Law Centre, Luton Rights and Luton Borough Council Customer Services, to transform advice centres in the borough.

Call for renaming of road is rejected

BY NICK SMITH

nick.smith@lutononsunday.co.uk

A NAME change has been called for on a road with historical connections to colonialism.

Havelock Road, Luton, is named after Henry Havelock, who brutally crushed the Indian Rebellion in 1857 and is widely viewed as a war criminal in India.

Walter Arbuthnaught, of Grove Road, Houghton Regis called for the name change, saying: "The widespread savagery of the reprisals [to the rebellion] exacted by Havelock's men involved fastening people to the muzzles of cannons and blowing them to pieces, which remains one of the darkest chapters in Britain's history of colonial oppression."

"I believe Hazel Simmons, who believes in Luton's rich ethnic diversity, should lose no time in taking steps towards renaming Havelock Road and Havelock Rise and in doing so remove a slur which has been allowed to stain Luton for far too long."

Local historian Howard Chandler said: "Looking at it from a pragmatic sense I wouldn't change it, but I can see the argument as some do view him as a war criminal."

A spokesman for Luton Borough Council said: "There are numerous historic references made within street names and the Council has no plans to consider renaming any roads in Luton."

"Any approach would require significant extenuating circumstances in addition to approval by the street's residents and associated payment to cover all costs."

Right up your street..

Bridging the gap with our road name

Howard Chandler looks at how bridges have influenced street's history

What do you expect to find in a road that has been called Bridge Street for at least 150 years? The first bridge was built there as early as the 12th century but nothing is there now

The river flooded and caused a death in 1975 but it is difficult to even see evidence of the river as it passes this point.

There was only a footbridge then, with carriages going through the water at what was known as the 'horse-pool'. During the flood carriages could not get through and those that tried got into difficulties.

After more floods in 1797 the level of the road was raised by seven feet and two brick bridges built over the water. I could not find any Bridge Street signs on a recent visit, and it is now mostly pedestrianised and forms the north side of St George's square.

A 'bridge' connecting the Galaxy Centre with a car park still exists but with the car park demolished, it is no longer in use.

Farewell Tony, we'll

BY CARL MUNGAZI

carl.mungazi@lutononsunday.co.uk

IT is not every day that a funeral attracts condolences from a local council, member of parliament and the government of your country of birth. Then again, Tony Jules was no ordinary man.

From the hundreds gathered at Futures House in Marsh Farm for his funeral on Tuesday and the sentiment expressed by friends and family who spoke on the day, it was clear to see that Luton had indeed lost a much-loved and well respected son.

He died on February 7 at the age of 63 at Keech Hospice after a battle with prostate cancer which began in 2011. Before he passed he made headlines after raising more than £40,000 to enable Keech to take on a new nurse.

When he started the fund-raising campaign last August he referred to the nurses as his 'angels' and it was at the hospice's site at Great Bramingham Lane where the day began.

Keech staff paid their respects and Tony's family expressed their gratitude for the care they displayed when he arrived there in May last year.

From Keech the family went to a private service before the funeral procession, led by musicians, made its way to Future's House for the celebration of a life which had left its mark on the local community.

Before moving to Luton 15 years ago Tony worked in London in the regeneration sector. He continued this work in the town, playing an integral part in the building of Future's House as well as many other community projects.

When I spoke with Denise, Tony's wife, in the week after he died, she told me he 'always thought of people before himself'.

And this was a theme repeated throughout the service on Tuesday.

In the eulogy, his eldest son Taj said: "He was a font of wisdom and inspired by my own thirst for knowledge and a love for knowing about my history and culture."

"I am so proud to have had a father who I've not heard anyone say a bad word about and who whilst on this earth, though for too short a time, made a difference."

His friends Dr Jude Mills and Jacqueline McKenzie spoke about his involvement in Grenada's revolutionary movement whilst Luton North MP Kelvin Hopkins said his life was an example 'we would all do well to follow'.

A representative from the Grenada High Commission, where Tony worked in the 1980s as its first secretary, also passed on the condolences of the Grenadian government and Grenadians across the UK.

However, one of the most touching moments of the day, perhaps, was when Glenn Jenkins, one of the pallbearers and a family friend, led the hundreds gathered into a 15-second round of applause in recognition of Tony's achievement and 'selflessness' nature.

Afterwards he said: "Future's House is a tribute to Tony's tenacity and his vision because there was a time in 2000 when we put together the plans for this building with an indoor children's play park. "There were plenty of people who doubted it, plenty who questioned the idea of a play park in the middle of a council estate with a bad name but for Tony Jules, the whole idea was to change that bad name through enterprise, job creation and providing things for the kids to do.

"The naysayers were wrong and Tony, as ever, was right. "We're going to miss his economic knowledge, patience and organisational ability. They were second to none and Marsh Farm will never forget Tony Jules."

Can you help us to deliver new homes and jobs?

Central Bedfordshire

great prospects

Call for sites

The council is launching a new plan to guide development in Central Bedfordshire. As part of the initial work, we are now inviting people to identify housing sites (for 10+ dwellings), large scale employment sites (10+ hectares) and Gypsy and Traveller sites within Central Bedfordshire.

From December 2014 - February 2015, the council asked for sites for between 15 and 500 homes. These will still be considered, but there is now an opportunity to resubmit enhanced submissions that take into account the proposed site assessment criteria and the increased threshold which now has no upper limit on the number of homes.

Further information together with the new submission forms are available at www.centralbedfordshire.gov.uk/localplan

You can request paper copies of the forms by phoning 0300 300 4353.

Submissions must be received by 11th April 2016 at 5pm.

MPs are split over

RICHARD FULLER OUT
Conservative Party

Shaped by my life experience and by my home town of Bedford, my heart, and my head tell me that our future is better and more secure if we vote to leave the EU when the referendum is called. We will trade with a renewed ferocity in the growing markets of the world, our democratic future will be stronger and we will be able to draw on all the world's talents equally and without prejudice.

Should we stay or should we go? As the European Union referendum battle gets underway in earnest, MPs from across Bedfordshire reveal they are divided over the future of our country. . .

I WILL be campaigning for Britain to leave the EU. I will be doing so because I believe in Britain. I think Britain is better than squalid backroom deals and the bland compromise of consensus between 28 countries squabbling for their share of a communal pot. I believe our potential is being held back, we are not cooperating with our European partners but being shackled to the consequences of their poor economic decisions. Outside the EU, Great Britain will continue to trade with Europe, we will be free to trade more with other parts of the world.

Brexit decision...

GAVIN SHUKER IN
Labour Party

Here in Luton we know that so many of our jobs depend on our ongoing membership of the EU. From easyJet to Vauxhall, we take advantage of the prosperity that being a member affords us. In those businesses, workers benefit from the protections at work that the EU provides. And we are safer because of cooperation with our European neighbours on terrorism and crime. We are stronger, safer and more secure as Britain in Europe.

ALISTAIR BURT IN
Conservative Party

I will be supporting the position to remain, based on my belief that our membership of the EU is best for us economically and politically and for our security and stability in the years to come. The EU has helped significantly to contribute to a Europe in which the wars of many centuries between European nations are now unthinkable. It also helped to build economies and opportunities for all our citizens to benefit from.

ANDREW SELOUS IN Conservative

Having thought long and hard about this issue, I have decided to back the United Kingdom remaining in a European union that continues to reform. Just under half our exports go to the European Union – the world's richest market of 500 million people. Of course we need to export more to the rest of the world as well, but harming businesses who export to Europe would have severe consequences for British jobs.

KELVIN HOPKINS OUT
Labour Party

The European Union is anti-democratic, anti-socialist and failing economically. With low and negative economic growth, 25 per cent unemployment and 50 per cent youth unemployment in some member states, living standards cut by a quarter in Greece, forced privatisations and restrictions on collective bargaining rights as conditions of the EU's bailouts, the true nature of the EU is now plain to see. It is time for democratic member state governments once again to stand up for their peoples and to reject the EU.

CIRCUS

Acrobats getting down to brass tacks with band

FRENCH circus company Circa Tsuica visits Luton next month with its hit show Opus 7 as part of a nine-venue tour blending daredevil acrobatics and brass rhythms.

Nine acrobats will tumble and turn against the backdrop of a brass band supplied by Luton Sixth Form College Brass Ensemble.

The band began working with Circa Tsuica's music director, Camille Secheppet, back in December and they learned the show's repertoire of Balkan brass and American jazz – and added their own local sounds to the mix.

The result promises to be an hour of non-stop brass beats, risk-taking circus tricks and humour.

It is the fifth show from Circus Evolution, a three-year Arts Council England strategic touring initiative created to ensure more high-quality contemporary circus work reaches a wider range of people across the country.

Simon Router, leader of the ensemble, said: "We are very excited to be involved in such a different project to our normal programme and are all looking forward to the show in March."

CIRCA TSUICA
THE HAT FACTORY
MARCH 10

Circus Tsuica's artistic director, Rachel Clare said: "Opus 7 is an ideal show for the Circus Evolution initiative, because it offers humour and spectacle, acrobatic and musical skill, and the opportunity for local musicians to work with French artists to inspire their musicianship and perform with them at some of the most prominent regional venues in the country."

Tom Neal, one of the founding members of the circus group, said it would be "interesting to see how the guest groups fit in".

He added: "Usually if you go to see a band, you are enjoying the way they play the music but here there is so much more happening."

"We like to really play with the instruments, their shape, their sound, the way the sound moves as the player moves."

Tickets are £10/£8 concessions. Call the box office on 01582 878100.

EXHIBITION

ELEPHANTS, rhinos, lions and other animals at Whipsnade Zoo will have to share the limelight this spring with winners from the 2015 ZSL Animal Photography Prize.

Yesterday the zoo opened its door for visitors to view and admire the stunning shots entered into the international conservation charity's fourth annual photography competition.

The competition attracts hundreds of entries from around the world and winners were selected by a panel of expert judges including television presenter Kate Humble, and renowned ornithologist Bill Oddie.

Photographer Andy Skillen won the Adult Judges' Choice winner with a picture of a shaggy-haired grizzly bear, silhouetted against a mountain-lined horizon.

Whipsnade Zoo general manager Owen Craft said: "It's wonderful to be able to welcome this year's prize-winning photographs to Whipsnade."

"This year's winning photographs are stunning, and offer another perspective on the natural world."

Entries for the 2016 prize are now open and those interested can enter at zsl.org/about-us/zsl-animal-photography-prize

The categories are as follows:

■ Catch me if you can
The animal kingdom moves at a pace that can make our human world seem slow. The only way to preserve these unexpected and fleeting moments that wildlife alone can produce is to capture them on film.

■ Weird and wonderful
This category celebrates the wonders of the animal kingdom's intricate design by exploring how varied nature's canvas truly is.

■ Size matters

From amoebas smaller than a sugar grain to blue whales the length of three double-decker buses, this category is as much concerned with sweeping panoramas as it is with micrographs.

■ At home in their habitat

This category cherishes wildlife still found in their natural homes - and draws awareness to the future challenges to be faced.

■ Deep and meaningful
This category is concerned with all creatures aquatic, beneath the surface of seas, rivers, ponds and puddles alike.

■ Urban City Life
This category explores and celebrates the fact that wildlife doesn't only exist in the wild - it's right on our doorsteps.

Let there be light in detached family home

Pevensey Close, Putteridge
£375,000

INDIGO RESIDENTIAL are delighted to offer for sale this beautiful detached home located in the extremely sought after location of Putteridge.

The accommodation briefly comprises of an entrance hall with stairs rising to the first floor, a downstairs cloakroom, a lounge which is of a generous size, which has a very modern feel to it and attracts plenty of natural light through the large double glazed window to the front aspect.

Just off the lounge is a conservatory to create extra living space. The kitchen comprises of fitted eye and base level units with gas cooker point, plumbing for a washing machine, provision for a dishwasher and space for a fridge/freezer. To the first floor there are four well-proportioned bedrooms, two doubles and two large singles. The family bathroom, which is also located on the first floor, has a three piece white suite and is fully tiled. Externally the property has an easily maintained rear garden which is mainly laid to lawn and has a decked seating area at the back. To the front there is a large drive which offers parking for two cars and an integral garage. Pevensey Close is located just off Birling Drive in the sought after area of Putteridge. Stopsley village is just a short walking distance from the property and offers an array of shops and local amenities. Great schooling is also provided locally via Putteridge Primary and Secondary Schools. An internal viewing comes highly recommended. Call 01582 512000 for further details.

PROPERTY TALK >with NIGEL LEWIS

It's London's latest squeeze

THERE won't be much cat swinging going on in this bijou abode. Sandwiched between two bigger properties, and at just 10ft wide, it's half the width of a normal house.

It may be skinny but what it lacks in width, it makes up for in length. The two-storey, 787sq ft property has two bedrooms, an open-plan kitchen/diner/lounge, a modern bathroom and a pretty decent garden.

It's bright and modern and all in tip-top condition, according to the agent – while another big plus is a coveted private driveway and parking space.

The asking price of £800,000 almost puts the two-bedroom home in the trendy Dulwich area of South London, in the £1,000-plus per sq ft bracket, which just goes to show how crazy London house prices have become.

A recent report shows that this part of the capital is the top spot for house price growth, according to a report by estate agent Knight Frank, after recording an increase of 863 per cent during the last two decades. Local house prices have shot up by 53 per cent in the last three years alone.

Meanwhile, a garage in Chelsea is expected to fetch more than £180,000 at auction when it goes under the hammer this week.

But although it's narrow, this house in Dulwich is by no means the smallest; with a front measuring just 47 inches wide, The Wedge on the Isle of Cumbrae in Scotland, went on the market for £85,000 last year.

Mirren's prime piece of France

ACTRESS Helen Mirren is not backward in coming forwards and last week appeared in a Budweiser TV ad berating Americans for drink-driving.

Dame Helen urged viewers not to be "pilllocks" and drive while drunk after the Super Bowl – one of the booziest events in the US. She also weighed into the Oscar race row recently, defending the Academy over its lack of diversity.

The actress, 70, also once admitted that she'd have preferred to play her character Madame Mallory (in comedy-drama The Hundred-Foot Journey) in French. However, producers decided it would have been too highbrow.

And Helen has a real French connection. She and husband, director Taylor Hackford, lived the French dream and bought this Provencal farmhouse in St-Paul-en-Forêt, 35 minutes from Cannes, about a decade ago.

They planned to do it up but have only restored part of it.

A sale was agreed last year for the property but unfortunately the buyers could not raise the finance so it's back on the market at a reduced price.

Helen's spokesperson said she is keen to sell and that there has already been quite a bit of interest.

"The property needs renovating and in fact half of it needs a complete rebuild so it holds great potential for those with time," she says. "It is great value for the area, particularly at the new price."

The former farmhouse comes with more than two acres plus there's a kitchen, living room with fireplace opening onto a pergola, office leading to a covered terrace, with three bedrooms and a bathroom upstairs.

What have you done to deserve this?

Low key pop synth duo Pet Shop Boys celebrate the 30th anniversary of their first hit West End Girls this year with the release of new album Super.

The Pop Kids, the first single from this album, comes out next month – and they're going to hold a four-night residency at the Royal Opera House in July to celebrate.

Singer Neil Tennant and keyboardist Chris Lowe are the most successful duo in UK music history. Since forming the group in 1981, they've had scores of top 10 hits and sell-out tours, also performing on the back of a rickshaw in giant pointy helmets at the Olympics closing ceremony.

Tennant, 61, might hardly be a sex symbol but he's admitted having had scores of stalkers hanging round outside his house. He once got so tired of one fan's attentions that when she insisted she was coming to tea with him, he asked a friend to throw a bucket of water over her.

The Geordie lad who sang about West End Girls has a house in London as well as a home in Wolsingham in the north east.

He owned this five-bedroom house in Fulham, West London, in the 1980s and 1990s, where he was responsible for installing fancy stained-glass windows and cornicing on the upper floors.

Set over five floors – including a cellar – with a double reception room at the front of the house leading onto a kitchen and dining room, second family room and garden, it's got a large garden as well as a third floor roof terrace and a price tag £3.4m.

Perfect for a drama queen

FANCY a room with a view of a literary landmark, where the original lovelorn Juliet looked out from her balcony?

This year marks the 400th anniversary of Shakespeare's death with work on a new apartment block kicking off on the site of the Curtain theatre, where Shakespeare's Romeo and Juliet was first performed.

The theatre opened in 1577 and was where Ben Jonson's Every Man in His Humour was performed in 1598, with the great playwright himself in the cast. The curtain finally fell in 1622 and it ended up buried beneath a Victorian goods yard until archaeologists discovered it in 2012.

Its remains will be at the heart of the redevelopment, with plans for a heritage centre where visitors will walk on a glass platform just above the remnants, and view objects from the dig. The Bard would no doubt have approved of a 200-seat sunken amphitheatre, along with cafes, restaurants and shops.

The Stage scheme is in the heart of hip and trendy Shoreditch with 412 apartments, ranging from studios to four-bedroom duplex penthouses in the 37-storey residential tower starting at £695,000.

Owners get an open plan, designer kitchen/breakfast area, bathrooms inspired by those in Manhattan's Hudson Hotel and access to a 32nd floor Sky Bar.

The residential tower will also boast a private 20-seat screening room, games and recreational lounge, business centre, 24-hour concierge, health club and spa. Work on the £750m development starts in April and the new owners should be able to move in three years from now.

www.thestageshoreditch.com, 0203 770 2154

AS North Korea continues to boast about its weapons tests, thoughts of a global thermo-nuclear war have returned.

And this underground house might be something to consider if you and your family are getting nervous about Kim Jong-un's sabre rattling. It's a former nuclear bunker.

This government-built retreat was a national secret until 2007 when even some senior politicians confessed they were unaware of it. Built in 1989, it's been well-maintained but never actually used. It's now up for sale, and with anyone looking for an unusual project, it won't cost a bomb as it's on the market for £575,000.

In Ballymena, County Antrim, the lower floor is completely underground and the upper floor is mounded over with earth. With 46,383sq ft of space, it's capable of accommodating 236 people, although that would have been a bit of a squeeze.

Someone's even left a stash of canned food from the late '80s in the kitchen.

The agent reckons it could be turned into a tourist attraction like Scotland's Secret Bunker, a Cold War nuclear command centre near St Andrews in Fife.

There's also a precedent for someone looking for unconventional living, as a former bunker in Chislehurst, Kent, which was converted into a luxury home, went on the market last year with a £3m price tag.

Spring is good news for sellers, says Connells

Get your property on the market now if you're serious about selling, says local estate agency Connells in Luton. According to the branch, the spring period is traditionally one of the busiest times of the year for searching for property. As people shake off the cobwebs of winter and the weather gets warmer, potential buyers will be out in force looking for a new home.

"Spring is a great time to sell," says Lee Clark, Branch Partner at Connells Luton. "Not only are properties a lot more aesthetically pleasing in brighter weather, but increased appetite to move during the spring period means sellers will have more prospective buyers competing to buy their home making it more likely you will achieve the best price."

Connells traditionally records high levels of activity in the housing market during the spring period. Indeed, over the last couple of years it has recorded a 28% uplift in the number of people registering their interest in a new home* and Connells fully anticipates another bumper season:

"We almost always see a rush of buyers entering the market in springtime," adds Lee. "It seems that many feel inspired by the warmer weather and longer days to start making plans for the future, including looking for a new home. With Easter just around the corner, we're advising home owners to get their property on the market early to be ready for the flurry of market activity that spring is sure to bring."

CARDINAL NEWMAN CATHOLIC AND SPECIALIST SCIENCE COLLEGE

Warden Hill Road, Luton, Bedford LU2 7AE

Science Technician

£5,288 - £5,646 p.a.
15 hours per week, term-time only

Vacancy ID: 104345

Diocese of Northampton in partnership with Luton LA

Cardinal Newman is an 11-19 comprehensive school serving the Roman Catholic community in Luton and Dunstable. The school has Specialist Science Status and was described by Ofsted in December 2013 as 'Providing a good education for its students; their personal development as well as academic achievement'. 'Students behave well in lessons; around the school they are polite, friendly and helpful'.

An opportunity exists within the Science Department for a Technician to become part of the essential technical support team to our Science teaching staff. It would be an advantage, but not essential, for applicants to have at least a background in Science and/or relevant experience of working in a Science/School Laboratory or equivalent.

Roman Catholic School in the Diocese of Northampton.

DEVELOPMENT PLANNING AND PROCESS TEAM

● NEIGHBOURHOOD INVOLVEMENT OFFICER

£31,208 - £34,050 per annum Ref: 5404

Full-Time, 37 hours per week (part-time considered)

These are challenging but exciting times for the Council, with a variety of services to deliver as well as new projects. This role is based within the Development Planning Process team.

We are looking for someone who can advise and support communities in the development of Neighbourhood Plans and also help them to engage in the Local Plan processes. The post holder will be the primary point of contact for communities with the council and managing the council's involvement.

You will provide appropriate technical advice, undertake, supervise and advise on public participation and consultation with all appropriate stakeholders in relation to Neighbourhood Plans in Central Bedfordshire.

You will be educated to degree standard preferably in planning or relevant subject. You will have an up to date knowledge of best practice, legislation and regulations relating to Neighbourhood Planning.

You will have good IT knowledge and experience of working with community groups. You will be self-motivated and committed to providing a quality service, with a flexible work attitude and the ability to work as part of a team or alone without close supervision.

You will be required to attend some evening and weekend events and will need to be able to travel to communities across Central Bedfordshire.

For an informal discussion about this position, please contact: Sally Chapman on 0300 300 4336 or email sally.chapman@centralbedfordshire.gov.uk

Teacher of Religious Studies

September 2016

We wish to appoint an inspirational and well-qualified individual to the post of part time Teacher of Religious Studies and Theology within the Humanities Faculty. You will be joining an excellent school with enthusiastic students, in small classes, eager to be challenged through innovative and dynamic teaching. Applications are welcome from NQTs as well as more experienced teachers.

The successful candidate will have the ability and experience to teach throughout the KS3 to A Level range and will join a thriving department of three specialist teachers.

Candidates should be willing to contribute to the extensive co-curricular life of this excellent, happy and caring school.

Closing date:

9am on 08 March 2016

Interviews:

11 March 2016

Further details can be found on the website. Completed application forms should be returned to the HR Department, Bedford Modern School, Mantion Lane, Bedford MK41 7NT or by email: hr@bedmod.co.uk

All posts are subject to enhanced DBS clearance.

THE BOROUGH OF LUTON (VARIOUS ROADS) (TEMPORARY ROAD CLOSURES) (OVERNIGHT RESURFACING) ORDER 2016

NOTICE is hereby given that on 15th February 2016 Luton Borough Council, the Highway Authority for the said Borough, made the above Order under the relevant provisions of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 (as amended).

The Order will come into operation on 1st March 2016 for a period of 18 months or when the proposed works have been completed. Specific times and dates will be signed locally. The Order will therefore be in operation when signs are displayed.

The effect of the Order will allow the Council to temporarily close to traffic the roads and lengths of roads in the Schedule below. The Order is intended to create a window for the works to be done and it is anticipated that the works will be completed over a period within the dates described in the Schedule below unless such works are delayed due to unforeseen circumstances.

The purpose of the Order is to enable carriageway resurfacing works to be carried out.

Access will be maintained as best as possible to properties where this may be done safely and diversions for traffic will be marked by signs.

MOTORINGNEWS

Lowdown on cleanest SUV

The XC90 T8 Twin Engine, the world's most powerful and cleanest SUV, has exceeded all expectations when it comes to the no compromise equation of power and low fuel consumption, coupled with world class low emissions – and all in a 7-seat luxury SUV. The XC90 T8 Twin Engine delivers 49 g/km CO<sub>2</sub>, a combined 407 hp*, 640 Nm of torque, 134.5mpg and up to 26 miles pure electric range.

The improvement over the earlier announced figures were achieved thanks to the continuous innovation cycle at the Swedish company. The result of further tuning is a drop of 10 g/km from the initial prognosis, for up to 134.5mpg (combined) fuel economy, while also adding horsepower. This makes the XC90 T8 Twin Engine the clear leader in its segment, with an exceptional combination of low fuel consumption, emissions and pure power.

No other SUV in this class can deliver 26 miles of pure electric range, 0-62mph in 5.6 seconds and provide combined power of 407 hp – all in a 7 seat configuration. All figures are based on the NEDC driving cycle for hybrids.

There's a Driving Mode for every need. The XC90 T8 Twin Engine can go from 0 to 62mph in 5.6 seconds, delivering all the driving pleasure customers have come to expect from a Volvo SUV. But driving pleasure is only a fraction of what the XC90 T8 offers: the car has five different driving modes that deliver a range of performance and efficiency-enhancing characteristics.

Using either a scroll wheel on the centre console or a touchscreen on the dashboard, drivers can choose from five different options. 'Hybrid' is the default mode suitable for everyday use. Here, the vehicle will automatically alternate between drawing power from the 2-litre, 4-cylinder Drive-E engine and the electric motor to deliver the best overall fuel consumption.

With 'Pure Electric' mode, when the high-voltage battery is fully charged, it serves as the car's sole energy source, powering the electric motor over the rear axle. The XC90 T8 has a range of up to 26 miles using just electricity. Thanks to the regenerative braking system, this mode is super-efficient in the stop-and-go traffic of city environments. If more power is needed, the Drive-E combustion engine starts up automatically.

In power mode, drivers get the combined performance of the combustion engine and the electric motor. On start-up, the SUV takes advantage of the electric motor's superior response and instant torque curve, while the combustion engine gets up to speed.

'AWD' mode offers constant all-wheel drive on demand. The advantage of being able to select AWD manually is that the driver can use it when needed, or choose to save energy for later.

With 'Save Mode', if the battery is charged, it allows the driver to "freeze" the battery level and save it for later use with Pure Electric drive. If the battery is low, the driver can use the combustion engine to charge the battery to a certain level for later use with Pure Electric drive.

Jeep Renegade

Take a look inside...

The Jeep Renegade is a genuinely smart piece of product design, distilling Jeep's brand values into a smaller package while leaning on the smartest technology the Fiat Group has to offer.

The Renegade offers a wide range of engines. For petrol people, there's an entry-level 110bhp 1.6 eTorq unit or, if you want petrol but need extra power, there's a 1.4-litre T-Mair powerplant with either 140 or 170bhp and the option of a DDCT auto gearbox. If you're looking at a diesel, there's a 120bhp 1.6-litre MJet unit or a 2.0-litre MJet option with either 140 or 170bhp. You'll need the 170bhp T-Mair petrol unit or the 2.0-litre MJet diesel if you want your car with 4WD.

The car's advanced 4x4 system incorporates a category-exclusive rear axle disconnect that switches seamlessly between two and four-wheel-drive for reduced energy loss when 4x4 capability isn't needed, improving fuel efficiency in the process. And the first-in-segment nine-speed automatic transmission ensures benchmark performance both on and off-road.

As much as I thought I'd dislike the Jeep Renegade, I couldn't help but love the styling. Yes, there are some angles where it looks a bit like a Kia Soul that's been on the hard stuff – but it's well-resolved, features lovely tight overhangs and some very cool detailing. What is particularly interesting is the way the design features some very traditional Jeep design cues but isn't afraid to twist them a bit into something resolutely modern-looking. That aspect you will either love or hate.

Cover up the badges inside the car and, yes, you would probably think you were in a Fiat product, but if you've had a look at the latest Fiat range, that's no bad thing. There's a complexity to the fascia that's a long way from the cheap plastics and slab-sided architectures that many associate with Jeep. It's a bit pinched in the back, but then that comes with the territory when you've got this little length to play with.

Jeep needed an entrant in the growing small crossover segment and the Renegade looks like a competitive rival. Many wondered what would happen to Jeep when Fiat got involved. If this Renegade is any form guide, we needn't have worried.

Land Rover figured out long ago that it couldn't sustain itself on just the old traditional customers. Jaguar and Jeep are working that out too.

HR-V Wins AM New Car of The Year Award

Honda's popular new SUV, the HR-V, has picked up the prestigious New Car of the Year award at the AM Awards. With the winner of the New Car of the Year decided by AM's dealer audience by online voting throughout January, the award requires the winner to have exceptional quality, impressive driving performance and be designed for maximum appeal. First unveiled at the Paris Motor Show in October 2014, the HR-V is Honda's entry into Europe's fast-growing small SUV segment.

Volkswagen Touran's New R-Line

Volkswagen is bringing more than a dash of sports style to the MPV class with the announcement of the new Touran R-Line. The brand's latest award-winning seven-seater – most recently named 'Best MPV' by respected automotive publishing brand What Car? – is now available to order in stylish R-Line guise for the first time. The R-Line trim level is Volkswagen's most overtly sporty mainstream equipment grade and provides a raft of exterior and interior styling enhancements, all carefully calculated to dial up kerb appeal, cabin style and on-road attitude.

RENAULT'S LATEST FINANCE OFFERS

Renault has announced its latest finance offers across its desirable and award-winning new models. After an outstanding 2015 for the French manufacturer, there has never been a better time for motorists to purchase a Renault. Available across the entire Renault model line-up, the attractive offers include the addition of a two-year 0% APR Selections PCP package on selected Twingo, Clio and Captur models. Lowering customers' motoring costs even further and adding plenty of fuel for thought, those who purchase the stylish Clio or Captur by March 14th will also drive away with an additional £500 towards their fuel costs.

Order Books Open For New Jaguar F-Type SVR

The F-TYPE SVR is the first Jaguar SVR and the fastest F-TYPE ever. It has been developed by Jaguar Land Rover Special Vehicle Operations to be lighter, quicker, faster and more powerful while remaining tractable and useable day-to-day. Customers may specify and order their F-TYPE SVR now, ahead of the global debut at the Geneva Motor Show. Its available from £110,000 for the Coupé and £115,485 for the Convertible. Its supercharged 5.0-litre V8 develops 575PS and 700Nm, and propels the car. From zero to 60mph takes just 3.5 seconds, and the Coupé's top speed is 200mph. The F-Type SVR features an enhanced aerodynamics package of front bumper and splitter, flat underfloor, carbon fibre active rear wing and rear venturi that reduces lift and drag

Introducing The New BMW M760Li xDRIVE V12

The recently launched BMW 7 Series now has a prestigious flagship at the head of the range: the new M760Li xDrive V12 marks the debut of a very special V12 engine to provide stunning performance with exemplary refinement. With TwinPower Turbo technology incorporated for the first time, this new M Performance engine produces 600hp and 800Nm of torque. It's harnessed by a highly sophisticated chassis specifically tailored to the model, and deployed to the road via BMW's xDrive all-wheel-drive system with a rear-bias for more dynamic handling. The new model is instantly recognisable thanks to the M Performance body enhancements, specific trim details and unique 20-inch alloy wheels.

Nissan Range Updates

Following the addition of N-Connecta to Juke and Qashqai, Nissan's Pulsar is the latest model to carry the new trim grade. The N-Connecta grade on Pulsar will be a direct replacement for the existing n-tec model, which will close to ordering once supply runs out. Making Pulsar ownership even more accessible, a new entry-level price for the Visia DIG-T 115 Manual is now just £13,995, representing a £2,000 customer saving versus the previous price. Current retail offers on the Nissan Pulsar include the Visia DIG-T 115 Manual from just £99 a month and 0% APR on PCP with minimum 25% deposit. These offers are available up until the end of March (31st).

Will FIFA ever really change?

NO doubt you were all engrossed with the voting process of the FIFA presidential election on Friday.

There's no question that this rotten organisation has to change, but one thing that remains the same is its ludicrous lack of self-awareness.

The opening ceremony in this year's Olympics may not be as overblown as the events in Zurich, as FIFA voted on which man would succeed Sepp Blatter as the most powerful man in football.

Blatter as much as anyone is responsible for the public perception of the bloated governing body, thanks to presiding over a regime beset with corruption and shady characters only out to line their own pockets.

It's thanks to this that no-one seemed to trust that any of the candidates, including the triumphant Gianni Infantino, could lead FIFA out of the mess they have dragged themselves into.

It was as if an actual state was electing a new leader, such is the inflated regard they hold of themselves and, just as in a genuine political election, each of them felt like the same voice with a different face.

Like every other football fan in this country, I was thrilled when Blatter announced he was stepping down as president after ludicrously being voted in again just days after several of his cronies were arrested as part of an FBI criminal investigation.

It really did feel like a great day for football, but fast forward eight months and we've yet to see if FIFA has truly changed its ways.

Yes, Blatter has been suspended, along with UEFA president Michel Platini, but it's taken too long for any actual change to take effect and the organisation is now at a crossroads.

With any luck, this really is a fresh start and FIFA will crawl out of the cesspit at long last, but there's a fear that there are too many executives who enjoy the life of luxury they lead too much for it to be given up.

For too long, individuals like that have been shafting football when it's supposed to be looking after its best interests.

It's probably asking too much for total reform, but I'd like to think that a more honest and transparent global governing body isn't just a Utopian dream.

FRESH START: Gianni Infantino is the new president of FIFA, but will he actually bring change to the corrupt organisation?

British women's tennis was given a boost when Johanna Konta reached the semi-finals of the Australian Open, becoming the first woman representing this country to reach the last four of a Grand Slam in 32 years.

It was the sort of stage we were hoping Laura Robson would be finding herself at after she reached the fourth round of Wimbledon aged 19 in 2013.

Sadly for her, a persistent wrist injury has meant she has been unable to build on what was a hugely promising start to her career, and add to the recent achievements of Britain's female players.

After missing the whole of 2014, she made her comeback just before Wimbledon, but just when it seemed she was starting to find some rhythm she suffered a relapse of that injury.

Another setback this week, which led to her withdrawing from a WTA event in Monterrey, means we may not be seeing her in action again until next month in Indian Wells.

It would be great to witness the 22-year-old competing at the level Konta has elevated herself to, but there has to be doubt after such a long absence that she'll be able to make it.

Young Hatters bow out of Cup

JUST SHORT: James Verney goes on the attack for Luton, who couldn't respond to conceding early LUTON Town's FA Youth Cup run came to an end at Blackburn Rovers, but the young Hatters pushed their opponents all the way in the quarter final tie with an excellent display that had everything but a goal as the hosts claimed a narrow 1-0 victory.

Blackburn's 11th minute opener, a deflected free-kick, proved decisive, but the Hatters matched their hosts, who came into the contest fourth in the U18's Premier League Northern section.

Jack Snelus had the best chance of an equaliser, only to be denied by a brilliant save, and despite late pressure Blackburn held out to seal a place in the last four, but the sizable contingent of Luton fans in the crowd could leave with pride in their side.

The hosts started the quicker and had already gone close twice before taking the lead as Lewis Hardcastle's low free kick went through the Hatters' wall, taking a deflection to leave Liam Gooch helpless.

Ramirez Howeth tested Gooch as Blackburn threatened on the break, but Luton thought they were level when a quickly taken corner found Snelus 20 yards out. His powerful strike looked destined for the top corner only for Fisher's fingertips to turn it onto the bar.

Freddie Hinds shot wide at the start of the second half, but the Hatters couldn't find the space they had before the break.

The Hatters ended the stronger, Akin Famewo heading wide from a corner, and as the game entered stoppage time Kavan Cotter found space on the edge of the box, but his shot was straight at Fisher.

10-man Blues hold on to win

FOOTBALL ROUND-UP

DUNSTABLE Town returned to winning ways yesterday battling to a 2-1 home win over Merthyr Town.

The Evo Stik Southern League Premier Division tie game got off to the perfect start for the hosts, when Stewart Talbot broke the deadlock with less than 60 seconds on the clock.

It got even better in the ninth minute, when Lee Roache broke through the Martyrs' defensive and found himself clean through on goal.

Glyn Garner, in between the visitors' sticks, came out to meet him and felled the Dunstable striker.

Talbot stepped up to take the penalty and made no mistake from 12 yards, firing past Garner.

Dunstable remained the better side and three points looked a certainty until the 70th minute, when they were hit with a double blow.

Midfielder David Keenleyside blocked an effort on goal inside the box and was handed a straight red card.

Ian Traylor stepped up to coolly convert and see a nervy finish to a game that once looked in the bag.

However, the hosts held on to take all three points and keep their play-off hopes alive.

■ In the Southern League Division One Central, Barton Rovers battled to a 0-0 draw against Godalming Town and in the Spartan South Midlands Premier Division AFC Dunstable ran out 4-1 winners away to Harefield Town.

Jones unhappy with display

LUTON TOWN

BY JAMES CUNLIFFE

sport@lsnmedia.co.uk

LUTON boss Nathan Jones admitted to mixed emotions after Olly Lee's stoppage time stunner beat York 3-2 because he claimed his team were 'mediocre' at times.

After a woeful first half the game turned into a five-goal thriller, but one where Town twice threw away the lead after Cameron McGeehan and Jack Marriott scored.

Jones said: "We need a consistency in our performance. I'm not asking for anything elaborate. I'm not asking for Barcelona-style football. I'm not asking for anything that's not standard in a good football team."

"I watched Northampton play these the other night and Northampton, you can see why they're top of the league. They do things well, they work, they craft."

"They have a settled team and he's [manager Chris Wilder] had them for two-and-a-half years, I understand that, but that's the level we need to reach in terms of a performance. Then, in the stuff we do and the structures we give them, then we pose teams different problems, but we've got to be better than that."

The manager claimed that the performance was the worst under his stewardship, particularly the start.

"It was a poor first half," he said, adding: "They lacked energy, they lacked desire and any know-how in their play. We're better than that. I know we're better than that because I work with them every day and we've seen it in games."

"We looked a mediocre team and we're not going to be a mediocre team. That's the disappointing thing. We didn't really come out of the blocks. We upped the tempo in the second half, we came out of the blocks and we scored."

"Then we gave them a goal, which can't happen, but it is happening. Then we got the lead back again. Then we should have defended that one better and then we managed to win it with a wonderful strike."

The win was Luton's first at York in 15 years and the first time they've claimed back-to-back league wins since November.

Jones said: "I'm delighted because we've won the game and got three points, but that was nowhere near good enough. That's nowhere near the performance that we need."

ON TARGET: Despite a disjointed display, Luton went ahead three times at York, with Jack Marriott bagging their second goal of the afternoon

Hatters midfielder strikes in stoppage time to claim dramatic three points for Town

Lee lifts Luton late on at York

OLLY Lee only scores stoppage time stunners and only his second ever Luton goal was a peach that got the Hatters out of jail to claim a first victory at York in 15 years.

Before that, Town had made a dog's dinner of it, twice throwing away the lead – after Cameron McGeehan headed his 12th of the campaign and Jack Marriott impudently flicked himself into double figures.

That was in an explosive second half that came out of nowhere, such was the truly dire opening 45 minutes, which stretched the visitors' barren spell at Bootham Crescent past the ten-hour mark.

In fact, the last time they notched on Minstermen territory was in their last triumph, nearer the turn of the century, so Luton's goalscorers were mere babes when that happened, a lifetime ago.

It was a combination of the errors – including a woeful Stephen O'Donnell backpass – which allowed Bradley Fewster to bag a double, but largely down to a yawn-inducing first half.

There's an episode of The Simpsons which satirises

America's perception of football (soccer) as a game lacking in action. The first 45 minutes here was life very much imitating art.

In 'The Cartridge Family' show, news anchorman Kent Brockman commentates his increasing boredom, as nothing remotely interesting happens, describing the action, saying: "Half back passes to the centre. Back to the wing. Back to the centre. Centre holds it. Holds it. Holds it. Holds it."

But the second period was well worth the admission fee, for drama if nothing else.

McGeehan headed in from a Danny Green corner on 52 minutes – having already gone close with a header moments earlier – before O'Donnell was punished, as Fewster went round Mark Tyler to slot into an empty net.

But the defender atoned by crossing for Marriott's audacious finish before slipping back into the bad books.

Luton were caught short trying to play offside and Fewster skipped past the right back to fire in for the second time – so there will not have been a more relieved man than the Scot once Lee popped up with his late, late cracker.

"I enjoyed that," the midfielder said, adding: "It was nice to get the winner in the last couple of minutes as I haven't scored for a while. It was a long time coming but worth the wait."

Fifteen years to be precise.
